President Trump ended his ongoing feud with Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.) Tuesday, telling reporters that McConnell personally assured him that the Senate would vote on Obamacare repeal, despite McConnell's hesitation to schedule a vote on a Senate bill. "He called me this morning and he told me that he would," Trump said during a Rose Garden event with House Speaker Paul D. Ryan (R-Wis.). "He called me and he said, 'We're going to get it done.' He was very nice about it," Trump added. "We're going to have Obamacare repeal and replace. We'll get it done." McConnell's office has long said the f678ea9f9e
